- 1 Upload a picture of yourself to include on your resume by clicking on the icon. For the best result, use a picture with square orientation.
- 2 Employers need a way to contact you. What is a phone number employers can call or text to hire you to babysit?
- 3 Employers want to know if you will be comfortable caring for their children. On a scale of 1-5, how much experience do you have with diaper changing and toileting? A 1 would indicate that you have little experience and you aren't comfortable with that skill. Choose more dots if you have more experience and comfort with the skill.
- 4 On a scale of 1-5, how much experience do you have with putting kids to bed?
- 5 On a scale of 1-5, how much experience do you have with entertaining children?
- 6 On a scale of 1-5, how much experience do you have with feeding children?
- 7 Enter your first and last name. (Use ALL CAPS to match the word BABYSITTER below and make your name stand out!)
- 8 Your objective statement describes what type of work you are wanting to do. Choose the statement that best describes you as a babysitter.
- 9 Choose the statement that best describes when you will be available to babysit.
- 10 Enter the name of the school you currently attend. If school is not currently in session, enter the name of the school you will be attending.
- 11 Enter the grade you are currently in or will be entering when school starts.
- 12 List any awards you have earned in school or clubs you participate in.
- 13 Enter the date you completed the Safe Sitter® class. You can enter the month and year or simply the year. If you completed another program, enter information about that program in these fields.
- 14 When employers are hiring babysitters, they often want to speak with someone that can tell them if you would be a good babysitter for their children. On a resume, this is called a reference. Enter the name of a person that can serve as a reference for you.
- 15 Enter the phone number for that reference.
- 16 Enter the name of another person that can serve as a reference for you.
- 17 Enter the phone number for that reference.
